UPDATE

Parent Fees while Child Care Centres are Closed

The Minister of Education announced that effective April 9, 2020, all child care providers are prohibited from charging fees to parents where care is not being provided and that parents will not lose their child care space or be otherwise penalized as a result of fees not being paid during this closure period. If fees have been paid in advance by parents, child care providers should reimburse parents for any fees paid for April 9 and beyond. The order is currently in effect until May 6, 2020.
